Country: Argentina

Languages: Spanish, English

Personal Description: I am a positive and loving life person. I like giving my best on everything I do. I love meeting new people and getting to know them really, that's why I consider myself a constant learner. I also love animals! Dogs, cats, turtles, bunnies, fish, I like them all! I like to be tidy in my personal space and in my life in general.

Hobbies: I could be dancing 24/7! Preferably ballet ☺ I also love playing field hockey, listening to music, riding a bike, or going for a walk through the city or countryside.

Favourite Music and Movies: I listen to different types of music: rock, pop, r&b, rap. But I also like good classical concerts and listen to jazz. In what refers to movies, I prefer to watch dramas, comedies, thrillers, fantasy, and historical movies.

The craziest thing I've done in my life: After many years of skiing, last winter my sister and I thought that we were able to ski anywhere in the mountain. Turns out that without wanting it we went off-piste. We end up facing a big slope all by ourselves. We went down the mountain really slowly and finally got to the base. It was gratifying to have passed that challenge, but also we learnt to be more careful when we're alone.

Things I like: I like family and people who are grateful and positive. I love knowing new places and travelling. Facing new challenges is also one of the things that keeps me going on life.

Things I don't like: Rudeness, disrespect, discrimination, close-minded people.

Life Motto: Love life!
