

Mana Haraguchi

Country: Japan

Language: Japanese (Native), English (Bilingual), only basic conversation of German (Beginner)

Personal Description: I am a speaker of both Japanese and English because I used to live in California, USA for 7 years. I am still a freshman in University in Japan, and trying to figure out what I can do for future ☺ I am an addict of cell phone and technology so whenever you need to take pictures let me know because I always have my phone in my hand! I love to hangout and talk with people and share our ideas.

Hobbies: My hobbies are cooking, listening to music, watching movies, and doing my nails. I usually love to bake, not cook dinner or anything but sweets ☺ and also I play guitar, just a little bit though.

Favorite music and movies: My favorite music is EDM, such as Clarity by Zedd, but also loving songs by Ariana Grande. My favorite movie is the great Gatsby and mean girls.

Craziest thing I've done in my life: Probably partying and do some crazy things all night. I would never try some of the parts, but it was crazy and good memories.

Things I like: I like anything that makes me happy. I like people who are very caring, sweet; yet honest about something they think it's wrong.

Things I dislike: I don't like something that makes me feel very uncomfortable. People who are short temper, getting mad easily, and careless are not my favorite types.

What I expect from host family: Just a warm welcome will be great.

Life Motto: Never say "I can't" until you actually try.
Happiness is not only yours, but it is there to share.
